

10 Important Reasons Why Clients Ask Atty. Patrick Sylvester to Handle Their Divorce and Family Law Matter

- REASON #1: Significant experience. This means that you will not have an attorney who is using your matter to learn how to practice law.
- REASON #2: Special training in family law. This means that you will not have a "general practitioner" handling your case. The law has become very complex, and it is almost impossible to succeed as a "general practitioner" in today's legal environment.
- REASON #3: Professional reputation. This means that you will have an attorney who has a long and extensive track record of providing exemplary legal services. Divorce and family law matters are very important, and this is not a time to hire just any attorney.
- REASON #4: Licensed to practice law in 4 states. This means that you will have an attorney who has taken challenging Bar Exams in 4 different states and passed all 4 exams on the first try, which is unusual.
- REASON #5: Written guarantees. This means that you will have an attorney who stands by his work - in writing. We have never seen another attorney offer written guarantees.
- REASON #6: References. This means that you are welcome to call Atty. Sylvester's professional referral sources. You should never hesitate to ask for references.
- REASON #7: Communication abilities. This means that you will have an attorney who is very good at explaining complex issues in understandable ways. Atty. Sylvester is a former educator who has earned a master's degree in education instruction. He uses this valuable training in the practice of law.
- REASON #8: Teaches other lawyers and professionals. This means that you will have an attorney who is the teacher, not the student. Before an attorney can teach other attorneys, that attorney must have a great deal of experience and a thorough knowledge of the law.
- REASON #9: Writes for legal publications. This means that attorneys use some of Atty. Sylvester's written works to help them in their day-to-day law practice.
- REASON #10: Flat-rate fees. This means that you will know the exact cost of our legal services before you direct us to work on your simplified, non-contested divorce case. And, all flat-rate fees are put in writing.
