Dear Patrick,

As with so much in our lives, we have put very important things aside and later regretted having done so. One of these was a review of our estate plan, which we had not thought about for many years.

Recently we realized that we had to do something about these old documents. We knew that commuting to Chicago would not be possible for consultations now, or later in our lives and hoped to find a lawyer in this area who would be able to take time to review our current arrangements and recommend changes as needed.

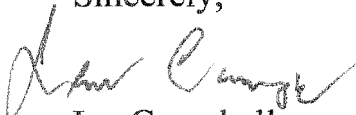

We approached a trusted advisor and without hesitation he suggested that we talk to you. Now, without reservation we would like to recommend your services to those in a similar situation as we were.

The estate plan that you have designed for us exactly suits our needs. This plan will preserve our assets for our family and provide for the possible eventuality that we are incapable of functioning in our own best interests. You have explained to us with complete clarity what each part of the plan provides and you have furnished us with all of the tools necessary to compile information that will simplify the process of settling our estate by our heirs.

We also appreciate that you have been accessible when we have had questions and have not hesitated to review documents for us.

Thank you for serving as our lawyer!

Sincerely,

Ian Campbell
